

Specjalista Ds. Utrzymania Ruchu (elektryka)

Praca w firmie przemysłowej zajmującej się przetwórstwem papieru

Our Client is an international producer operating within the paper converting industry, it produces materials used in different industries. It has production facilities in a few European countries and outside Europe. The group has been known for long for its highly innovative products, outstanding technical expertise and exceptional service. The company has been present in Poland since several years where it has production facilities in different business lines. Its operations are compliant with strict international safety and quality standards. At present our client is about to open a greenfield production facility in Wrocław. Due to this they are now looking for qualified and committed professional candidates, to take up the position of: Maintenance Team Member, Electrical Wrocław. This person will be responsible for the industrial electrical installations and production machines as well as equipment maintenance. Scope of duties: Industrial electrical installations. The installations, maintenance and repairing of the production machines and equipment. Other tasks assigned by the superior. Candidate's profile: Suitable technical education (electrical). A few years of experience in industrial maintenance work. Fluent English and Polish skills (oral and written). Knowledge of programmed logics (Siemens), AC and DC use. If you have the relevant background and strongly feel it is a great development opportunity for you please send your CV to: www.talentor.net/3514

Date utworzenia: 21-01-2013